12th EGS

European Glaucoma Residents' Course

16-17 February 2018
Mainz, Germany

FINAL PROGRAMME

Scientific Information

ABOUT THE COURSE

An intensive two-day Course by leading European glaucoma specialists, with in-depth discussions on diagnosis and therapy, available technologies and surgical techniques for glaucoma, featuring lectures, case presentations, hands-on workshops and surgical wetlabs. Each workshop will be held three times with three different audiences and will last 1 hour and 15 minutes.

LANGUAGE

The official language of the 12th EGS European Glaucoma Residents' Course is English. All participants are encouraged to join discussions, independently of their fluency in English, as the exchange of ideas and critical evaluation of presentations is the main purpose of the Course.

CME DESIGNATIONS

The 12th EGS European Glaucoma Residents' Course is accredited by the European Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (EACCME) to provide the following CME activity for medical specialists. The EACCME is an institution of the European Union of Medical Specialists (UEMS), www.uems.net

The 12th EGS European Glaucoma Residents' Course is designated for a maximum of 12 hours of European external CME credits. Each medical specialist should claim only those hours of credit that he/she actually spent in the educational activity. The EACCME credit system is based on 1 ECMEC per hour with a maximum of 3 ECMECs for half a day and 6 ECMECs for a full-day event.

The CME questionnaire will be available on the course website www.egsmainz2018.com from 18 February to 11 March, 2018. Please note the registration code, printed on your badge, is necessary to access the CME questionnaire. The certificate of attendance will be sent via e-mail once the online evaluation form is completed and your attendance records have been checked.

The 12th EGS European Glaucoma Residents' Course is also accredited by EBO. Further details will be available at the website www.eugs.org/ The European Network of Education for Trainees (ENET) is an EBO initiative offering a teaching program for European residents and specialists preparing for the specialist exams by building a European network of European teachers and teaching programmes by different national and international scientific societies covering all fields of subspecialties in ophthalmology. Quality of this teaching programme is guaranteed through accreditation.
